Remember when we were Freshmen . . .? getting lost at the "circus", scratchy skirts
and baggy sweaters,
"81", stubborn lockers,
and tons of books.
Algebra and Exploratory Arts, Dance slippers,
and tennis shoes,
laughter, new friends,
and shared secrets.
The panic of our first walk-around registration, and then came . . .

. . . Sophomore year . . .
lighter book-bags
and light-bulb sales,
no more chairs,
Freshmen cousins,
and S.S.T.'s, upper lockers, and our first class dance.
Geometry:
Pythagorean Theorems
and Isosceles Triangles.
English Lit with Beowulf and Heathcliff.
Weekly Vocabulary tests: 1100 words to . . .

... Juniorhood ... little sisters and initiation, having our own parking space,
no more scratchy skirts
and
baggy sweaters,
PSAT, SAT, and ACHIEVEMENT tests, the Christmas fundraiser and Prom planning.
The Junior-Senior Farewell, Anticipation-and then we were ...

. . . Seniors ourselves!
"78" RAH!
The lawn was ours, and so were Senior Privileges:
S.S.T.'s on the lawn, off campus and extended lunches:
Wednesdays at Carl's and Shakey's.
All about Marriage and American Government,
the Halloween party, Santa's Workshop, Senior buttons, the Talent Show, semester finals.
Applications and transcripts, an evening at The Castaways, graduation announcements.
May 27th: the Breakfast, white dresses and roses, diplomas, our final walk down the Senior lawn.
Memories and keep in touch promises.
Tears, hugs, and endless tomorrows . . .

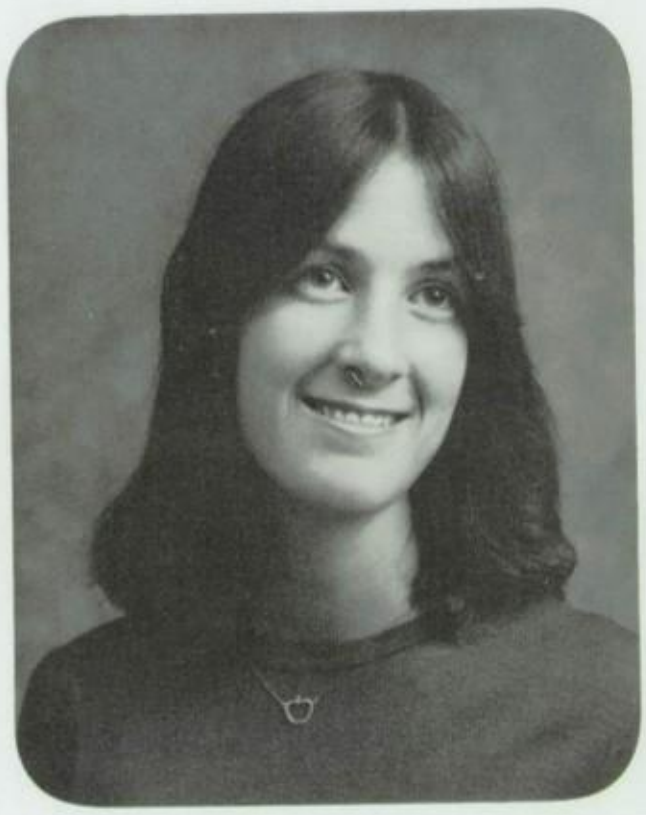
"It's over now and I've made my decision. It hasn't been an easy one to make. How can you say goodbye to people who have been a part of your life for so long? In fact they've been my life. But I must . . . "

K. Tryer

Michelle Brouillet

"I'm not prepared for the real world. All I know is school and girls."

S.H.



Kathleen Campbell

"Over four years I have watched our relationship blossom into mutual sharing and love. How do we attain such love? We have it. Love is not always saying nice things to people or smiling or praising. Love is Love. Through you, my friend, I have realized an important vision, "Don't strive for love, be it."

1. Officers: TOP TO BOTTOM Maria, Galindo, Sec., Maggie Kennedy, Treas., Dina Campion, V.P., Anne Parker, Pres.

LITURGY

Louisville's newest group, Liturgy Core, has been very active this year. With moderator Sr. Laura, they play and coordinate school liturgies. Our liturgies are especially meaningful and personal because of this group.

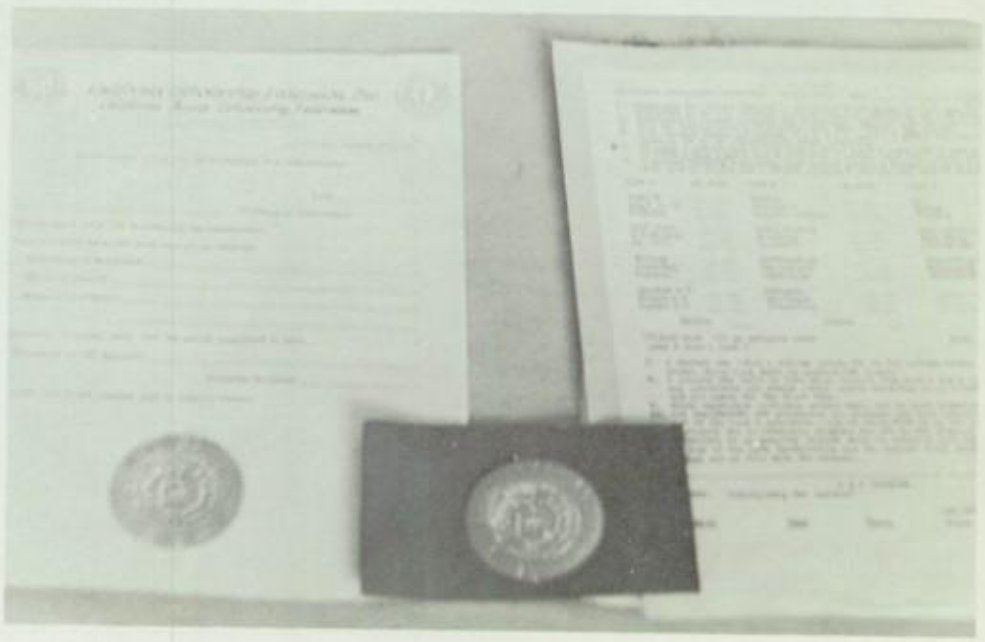
C.S.F.

1. Officers: Yvonne Van Son, Pres.; Maggie Carroll, V.P.; Erin Walsh, Treas.; Suzy Boyett, Sec.; Miss Perry, Mod.

Myatt, (bottom row) M. Miller, R. Gemmingen, C. Callaway.



CHRISTIAN SERVICE

Christian Service is the largest core because it involves the entire school. Students are enthusiastic about the valuable services they perform. This year, Christian Service sponsored a Thanksgiving dinner for the elderly of St. Martin De Porres, tutored young children, and visited convalescent homes. Perhaps the most successful program Christian Service participates in is Los Ninos. They visit Tijuana orphanages, feed and clothe the children, and give them love and attention.

DANCE

This year, Dance Club has encouraged interest in the art of Dance. In their participation in the Christmas Concert, Dance Club performed both modern dance and ballet. In April, Dance Club participated in their first Fine Arts Festive, sponsored by Notre Dame for Catholic High Schools in the Valley.

Louisville has three singing groups; Les Chanteuses, Las Cantantes, and a new addition, Camarata Singers. All three groups performed at the Christmas Concert, and the Friendship Brunch. The Camarata Singers performed with the Crespi Chorus.

KEYWANETTES

The Keywanettes' main accomplishment this year was overcoming lack of club participation in activities, and other organizational difficulties. Members served both the school and community during the year. They worked at the Friendship Brunch and the St. Martin de Porres dinner. They also helped the Parents' Guild with hospitality when necessary. Several members visited convalescent homes during the year, and others teamed with Crespi's Key Club to sponsor the trash program. Fundraisers included Christmas and St. Patrick's Day grams, and the basic bake sale.

LAUREL

The title of the newspaper has changed from Canyon Echoes to The Laurel. Along with the new title came two new moderators, Miss Weakland and Mrs. Casadonte. During second semester Miss Weakland supervised the production of The Laurel, while Mrs. Casadonte taught the background of journalism. The quality of the newspaper has greatly improved due to fewer mistakes, cleaner appearance, and better format. The journalism staff works hard in order to publish a spicy, informative newspaper.

Where "perfection is a necessity . . ."
Camp director, Sr. Patricia

Dear Mom and Dad,

Everything is fine here. Sorry I haven't written, but I've been busy with Camp activities. You are not going to believe the crazy things that happen here.

We have these things called "deadlines," that keep us on our toes. We went ad-hunting yesterday and I caught a bakery and two shoe stores. Sr. Patricia almost swallowed her whistle last week when Colleen got lost after she went hiking to pick up some pictures. Megan got to have first aid this morning after a copy key she was looking for jumped up and bit her on the nose.

Anyway, we've had some good laughs. I better go now because I have P.R.P. (proof-reading patrol).

Love,

SPEECH

The Speech Club was very active again this year. They frequently attended tournaments in various places such as Berkeley, Tustin, and Redlands. They won seven Sweepstakes Awards. Like most of the clubs at Louisville, the Speech Club is self-supporting. They hosted their own tournament on January 6 and sponsored an assembly, and a Speak-Easy for prospective Louisville students.

ACTIVITIES

SEPT.

After a short summer, the crowded booksale lines opened the school year for some students. For others the year did not begin until the Senior Dance, the first student body social event of the year. Soon Freshmen, dressed as circus characters, were seen roaming around campus. The initiation ceremony with "A day at the Circus" as its theme, ended the week. At the end of the month faculty and students prepared for the student body Mass.

OCT.

Success in the magazine drive this year was helpful because half of the money earned is a tuition subsidy. We reached our quota of $26,500, $7,500 more than last year's quota. A popular social event in October is Father-Daughter Night. Couples dressed for the theme, "King of the Road." The Halloween Dance sponsored by the Juniors was enjoyable though not well attended since so many students went to either Crespi's play or the football game. The month ended with the annual Senior Halloween Party. And Then There Were None was shown to the student body, compliments of the Senior Class.

1. Selling tickets to the Father-Daughter Night were Pamm Emerson and Marlene Colucci.
2. Mary Pat Franklin and her father offered a musical interlude during the evening.
3. Valerie Kavanagh "deals" with the Magazine Drive Representative for prizes.
4. Suzy Boyett and her father dress as skunks to show their version of "King of the Road."
5. Even the teachers dress-up for Halloween; here is Sr. Patricia in her costume.

The Friendship Brunch, held in November gave incoming Freshmen and their parents a chance to see Louisville. Clubs arranged displays in classrooms and club members told about activities. For three days, fifty Seniors attended the Senior Retreat at Camp Mariastella. The Christian Service Corps sponsored the St. Martin de Porres Dinner on the nineteenth. Club members from Keywanettes and the Home Economics Club prepared the dinner. Liturgy Corps members prepared the Thanksgiving Mass for families.

ember began with a speech from Sen. Barry M. water Jr. Although his visit was disappointing, the ents learned much about politics. The Junior class had a stic fundraiser, thanks to the efforts of the class ers, Mrs. Hasz, and Sr. Brid. The annual Christmas cert was a big success for Thespians, dancers, and ers. As usual they played to a standing-room-only
d. Louisville was "discovered" by a movie company, for two days our classes were disrupted, our parking es taken, and Mrs. Hasz relocated, as Lab 2 was used set for the movie. Thanks to Miss Weakland, who ad her Yuletide cheer to all her classes, many oges had changes of heart.

JAN.

The first major event of the New Year, Louisville's Speech Tournament, was highly successful for our teams. In January, the class of '80 sponsored their first dance, featuring the band "Rise." Since the October Father-Daughter night was so successful another one was held with the theme of the carnival. The month was topped off with Inter-Term.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Homecoming

December 17th

was the immensely enjoyable Homecoming Dance, sponsored by the Senior Class. Undaunted by rain, couples stepped into "Santa's Workshop", where they were greeted by the cozy sight of Christmas trees, stockings, elves, and a large fireplace. The beautiful decorations made it easy to believe in Santa and his little helpers.

1-2. Couples danced to the music of "California."
3-5. The evening's guests of honor were Liz Hall and King R.J., and of course Mr. and Mrs. Santa.
4. Elf Karen Cummings, surrounded by towers of cups and gingerbread houses, assists with refreshments.

INTERTERM

From lasagna to granny squares, from Yahtzee to lonely burgers, mini-week marked an interesting and enjoyable end to the hectic first semester. Classes ranged from Art to Exercise. Many students were able to participate in the special programs which included a China Peak ski trip, a Yosemite camping trip, and an American Heritage tour to Philadelphia, Washington D.C. and New York. As the week came to a close, students were refreshed and ready to face a challenging second semester.

STUDENT GOV'T DAY

This year Student Government Day was held on March first. The day was divided into three segments. First, Student Body Officers, and class and club presidents reported accomplishments as well as plans to the school. This was the students' opportunity to hear about Council activites. Second, clubs and classes set up booths and sold food donated by members. The last segment of the day consisted of entertainment by a 50's band, Shu Nu Nu.

Our fantastic faculty volleyball team, led by Captain Ron Arrington and coaches Miss Herrel, Wendy Cummings and Peggy Hutchison, completed its season of 2 games with a 1-1 record. The win over the J.V. team was partially due to a little scoreboard rearrangement by Miss Weakland and Sr. Anne Murphy, and to the reffing by Mrs. Ryan and Wendy.

Although our volleyball team started slowly this year, they really improved, finishing the season with an 11-3 record, and a chance in the playoffs. Our new coach, Miss Marilyn Herrel, did a good job in her first year here at Louisville. In the playoffs, we played Glendale High. Although we lost, 15-7, 16-4, we had a large cheering section, and showed great Royal spirit.

J.V. Volleyball has many new faces this year, including Cindy Keegan, the head coach. It promises to become a very experienced Varsity team. They have had a very strong year, finishing first in the standing.

J.V. VOLLEYBALL

J.V. Basketball started this season with Marilyn Herrel as coach, and 12 enthusiastic players. One of the teams strongest points is the speed and accuracy of the fast break. We look forward to seeing these young players on a championship Varsity team in the years to come.

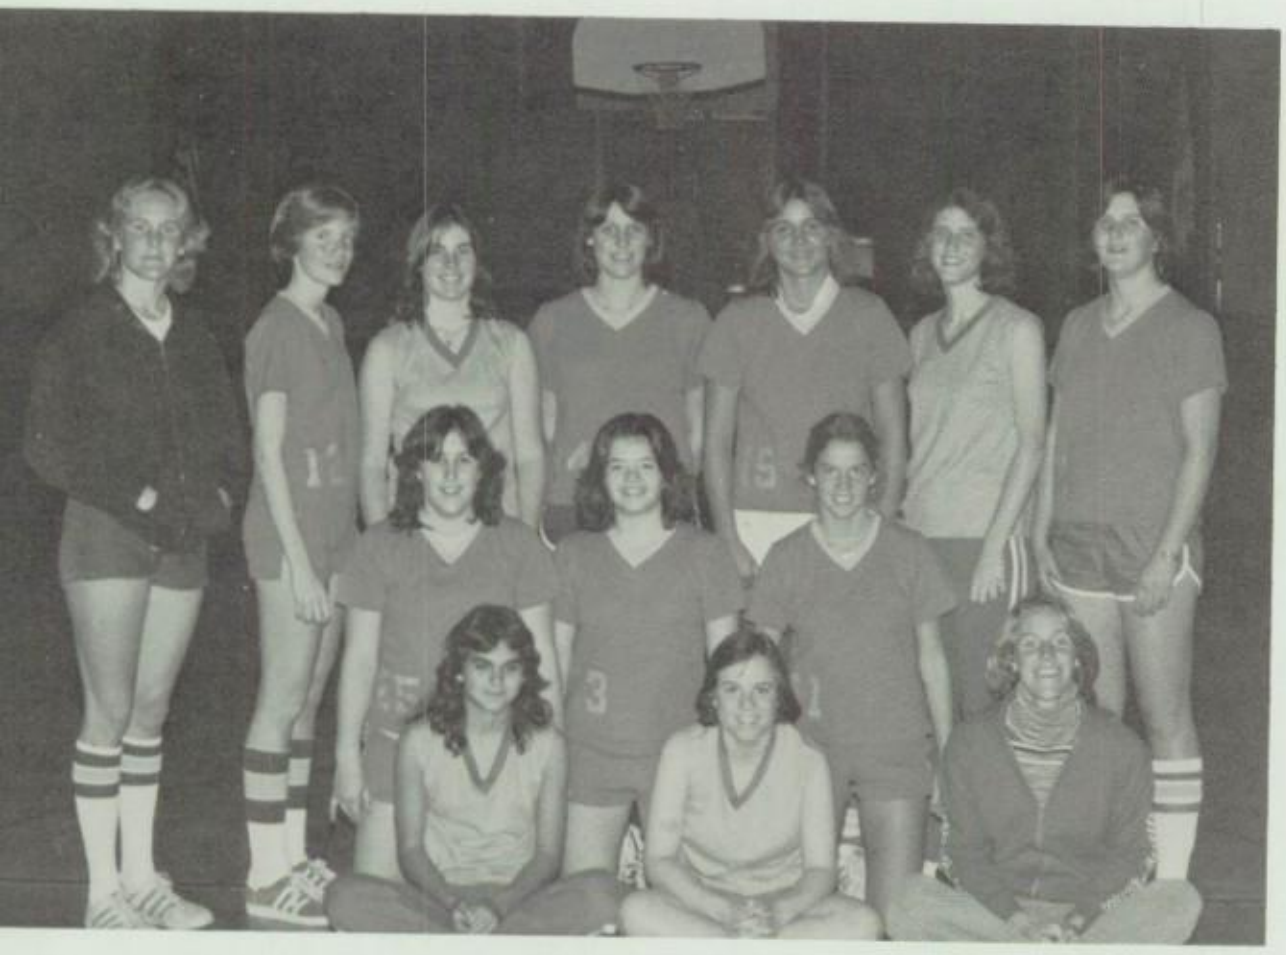
J.V. BASKETBALL

VARSITY BASKETBALL



Varsity Basketball, coached by Marianne Fullove, a newcomer to Louisville, had a very good year. Mrs. Fullove has proven to be an excellent coach. The team's constant conditioning proved to be very helpful in running the other team to the ground. Besides improving on basic skills and moves, the team also learned to release their aggression by giving boreos.

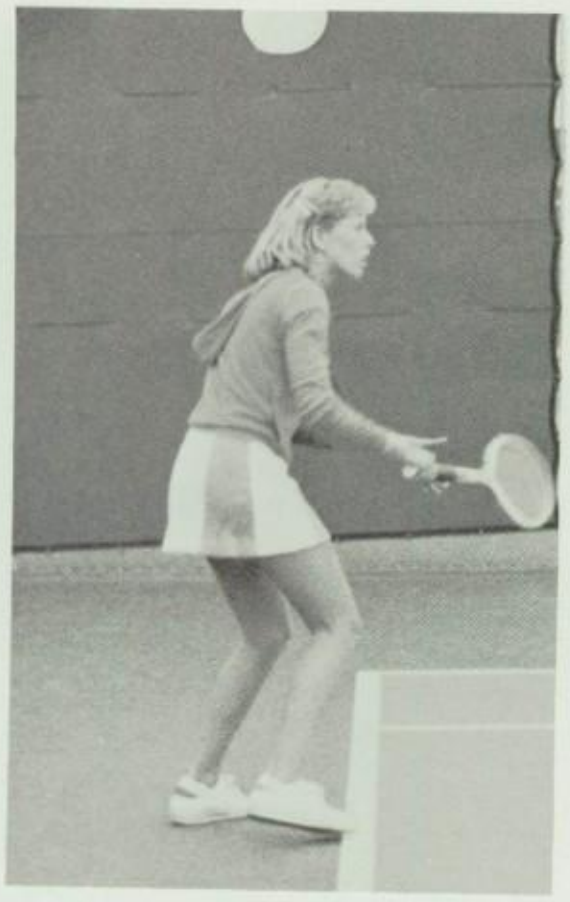
Our terrific tennis team had a great season this year. They were undefeated and took first place in their league. They were victorious in the first round of the CIF playoffs. In the second round, however, they were defeated. According to Miss Kathy Thomas, this was the best team we've had yet.

VARSITY TENNIS

J.V. TENNIS



With emphasis on practice and improvement, rather than competition, the JV tennis team had an enjoyable and beneficial year. Coached by Mrs. Joanne Knarr, they played several practice matches against local schools. All members improved greatly and had a good time.

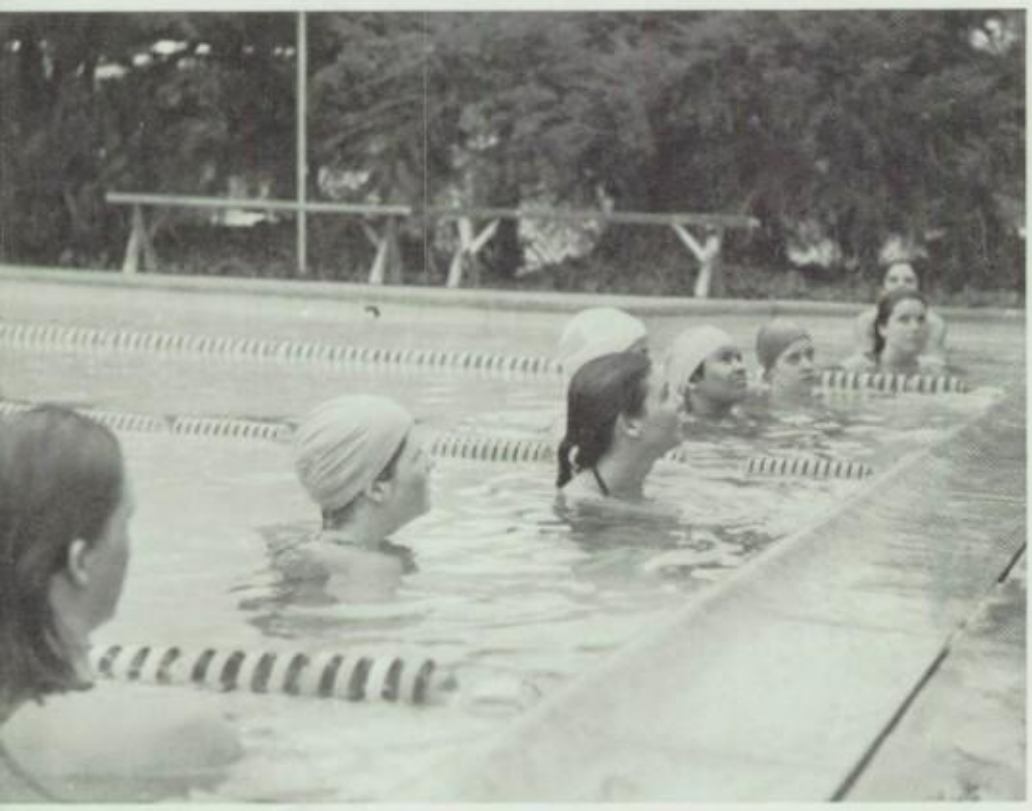
SWIM TEAM



The Louisville Varsity and Junior Varsity swim teams did as well as previous years. Many girls practiced extemely hard under the fantastic coaching of Mr. Tom Barnett.

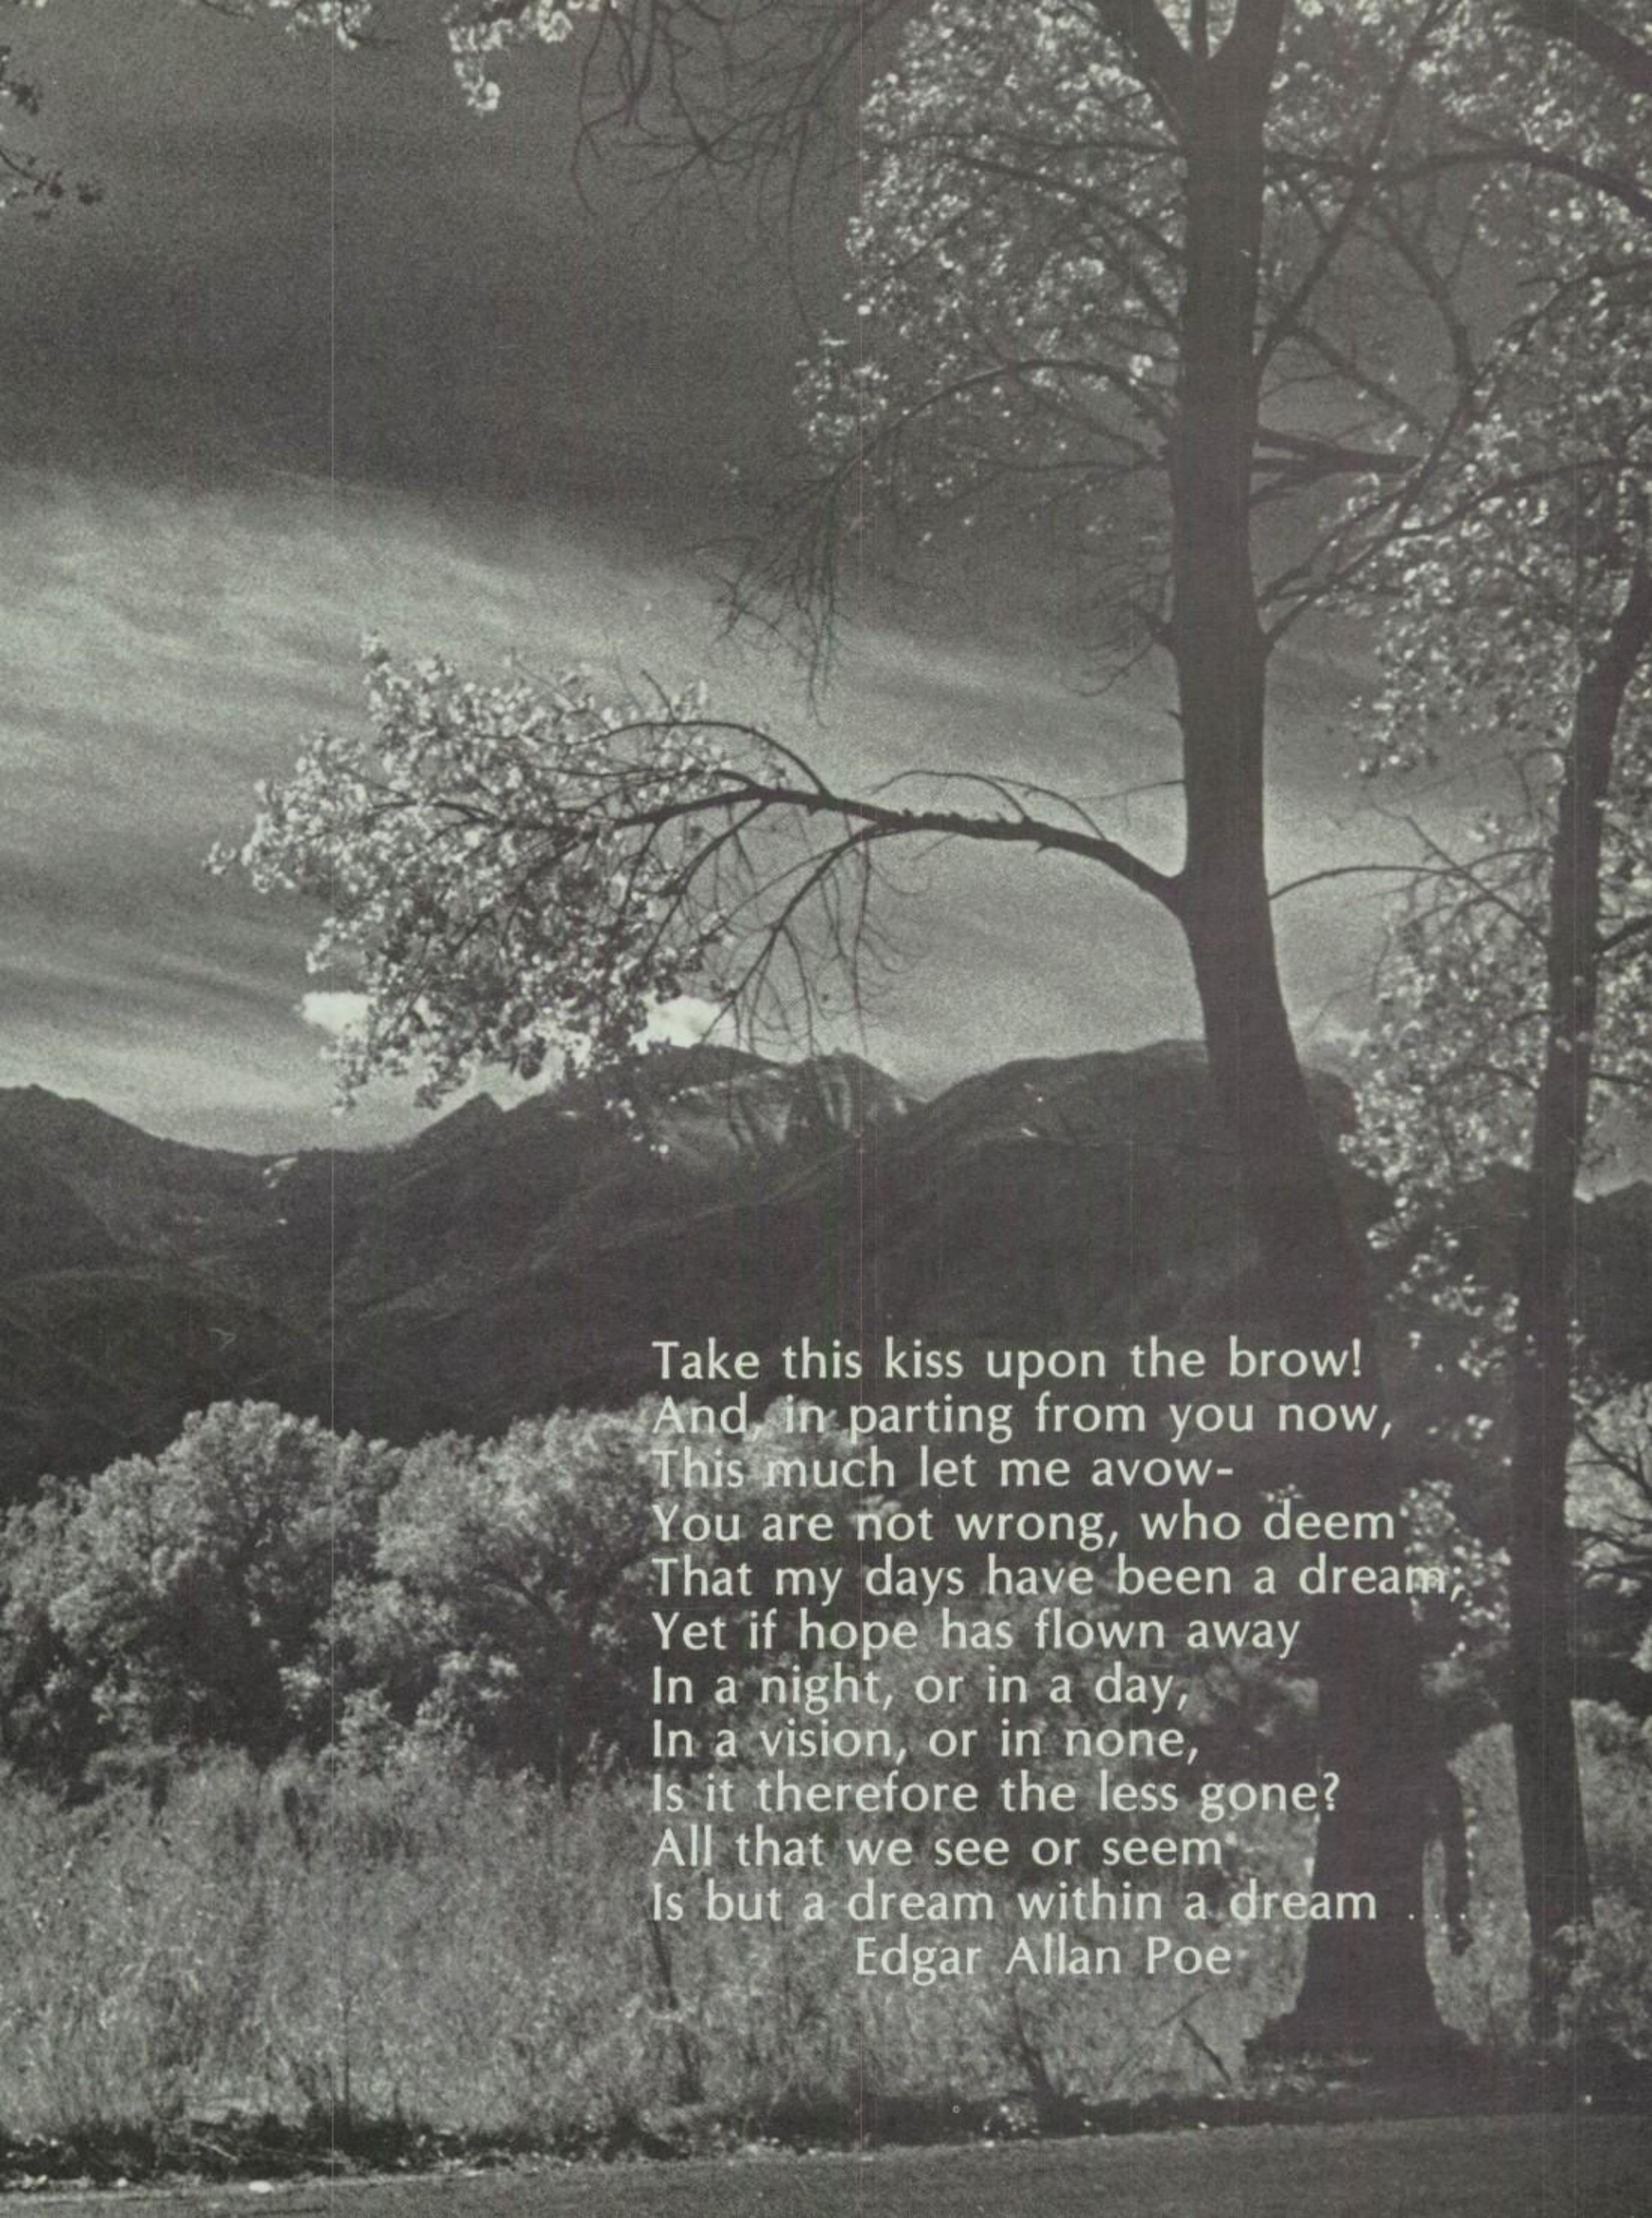
The class clowns added a little insanity to Louisville games and Pep Rallies. Attired in blue and gold lion suits, these four clowns amused and entertained the teams and the small, spirited crowd at the games.



Take this kiss upon the brow!
And, in parting from you now,
This much let me avow-
You are not wrong, who deem
That my days have been a dream;
Yet if hope has flown away
In a night, or in a day,
In a vision, or in none,
Is it therefore the less gone?
All that we see or seem
Is but a dream within a dream

With love to our daughters

From another vantage point

Incredibly
she marches in parades we did not know were forming, moves familiarly in places we did not even know were there.

We look at her and still fail to understand the limiting, corralling framework of our love.

It may be that we wish for our children something more or even less than they have in them to give:

Cellini's father wished him to be a flute player, Virgil's wished him to keep bees, Durer's wished him to become a goldsmith.

Can we ever regard our own young and let them be?

Will we ever view the child we parented and acknowledge to ourselves:
there is more in you than me.

To Rene,

You've known us since we came to be-Now Whitney's almost two and me, I'm three!

So much we've shared these past few years-
From silly giggles to baby tears.

Bye-Bye trips with you are so much fun-McDonalds, Dodger games;
the beach in the sun.

Our quiet times are special, too-It's so nice to be held by you.
You always understand
If Witty and I fight

You even protect us;
cause "Duckies" do bite!
You know how to play and make us laugh-Everything can be a game, even our bath.

Our Mommy and Daddy think you're special, too-they hope that we grow up like you!

You're a "biggest girl" now with places to go-But Itty-Bitty and I will always love you, you know.

So-Mommy, are you and Daddy going out tonight?
If Rene watches us,
we'll be alright!

It is not growing like a tree
In bulk, doth make men better be;
Or standing long an oak, three hundred year,
To fall a log at last, dry, bald, and sear:
A lily of a day
Is fairer far in May;
Although it fall and die that night,
It was the plant and flower of light.
In small proportions we just beauties see,
and in short measures life may perfect be.

The growing drama has outgrown such toys of stimulated stature, face and speech. It also peradventure may outgrow the stimulation of the painted scene, boards, actors, prompters, gaslight and costume, and take for a worthier stage the soul itself, its shifting fancies and celstial lights with all its grand orchestral silences to keep the pauses of its rhythmic sounds.
